About Us

Department of Higher Education, Govt. of Uttar Pradesh

In the age of information technology, the entire world is rapidly taking the form of a globalized village. These changing circumstances have created many challenges before the human society. Our society is also not untouched by these challenges. In the present scenario of globalization, extraordinary changes are taking place in democracy and democracy in every sphere of our social and national life. The impact of changes in traditional magazines and catalogs on education and higher education in particular has been discussed. Education is the cornerstone of investment in the development of human personality and the creation and development of society and nation through the individual. It is a universally accepted truth that in this era of knowledge, science and globalization, the world of education plays the most decisive role in building a powerful and all-round developed nation. The Higher Education Department is determined to face these challenges and fulfill the government's intention of making higher education universally accessible. In such a situation, the important role of higher education is clearly visible. It would not be irrelevant to accept here that there are many adversities and limitations in this path, but the expectations of the nation and society from the higher education department are continuously increasing.
